Palm Beach building. He stayed on as Superintendent of construction for the Breakers Hotel, the Royal Poinciana and Cameo building in Illinois.

He came to Belle Glade his home in 1929 and was in the construction business here all of his active years. The business was continued by his sons Buddy and Wallace.

Mr. Lutz was affiliated with the Methodist faith. He was a frequent and most welcome visitor throughout the years at The Herald, was the first to purchase a Herald subscription when publication began in 1940.

Survivors include two sons Charles E. and Wallace K. Lutz, both of Belle Glade, one daughter, Mrs. Theone Woodhouse of Detroit, Michigan, one brother, Earl Lutz of Olney, Illinois, eight grandchildren and a great-grandchild.

The Herald's Suggestions

The HERALD offers the following comments, reasons and suggestions as to a choice among the various Democratic candidates for public office, with the dominant considerations of:

(1) their value in that particular office to (a) the Glades, (b) Palm Beach

County and (c) the State;

(2) the presence of, or the potential for, statesmanship;

Honesty, integrity, energy and an agile mentality are important in individual evaluation.

For Governor: HAYDON BURNS, for reasons heretofore and currently in our editorial—
Attorney General:

FAIRCLOTH — demonstrated adaptation to demands of the office; he is a South Florida man.

Comptroller: BUD DICKINSON — a trained public office holder with service record as an appointee — he is a Palm Beach County man.

Treasurer: BROWARD WILLIAMS — His training has been under one of the best (Larson) with intimate knowledge of the job. He demonstrates integrity, honesty and enthusiasm for the office.

Public Service Commission: GROUP 1 — Wm. T. "Bil" Mayo — a successful business man, a student of the limitations and potentials of the jobs with experience to energize expanding ideas of SERVICE to the public and the industries. He is the son of one of Florida's outstanding public servants, and a friend of the Glades — Nathan Mayo.

GROUP 2 — Emmett Roberts — Without a peer in legislative representative or the high regard of his fellow representatives and senators.

A success in administration, civic works, state representation in migratory labor councils, in education, water resources, and the Commission's legislative need — man in need in high public office.

Legislative: State Senator: Percy I. Hopkins — A success in his own business with a record of effective civic effort and public office — Mayor of West Palm Beach.

His knowledge of geographic area and acquaintance with the economic base of the area, allows us to list him as one who knows the area. He is a part of Palm Beach County — an important part.

Group 4 — Jim Maynor, a professor, a coach, an administrator whose ties with the Glades make him important to us when he advocates his ability, ambitions and intent to serve ALL of the County as a legislator.

County Commissioner: District 2 — Lake Lytal

— a man of experience who is aware of the Glades' contribution to the County's substance and purpose, and gives it consideration.

District No. 4 — Al C. Avery, a young man of experience in community service and a perceptive appreciation of "the rights of man" whetted by a recognized hero's part in his country's military service.

Mayor of Delray, he's demonstrated ability.

Board of Public Instruction: Paul W. Potter, Jr. — native to his hometown of West Palm, with inherited qualities of family service, augmented by his own activities. Ideals of government sparked by youth, integrity and experience.

Judge-Criminal Court of Record: Don C. Sinclair — reports from members of the legal profession who are acquainted with both candidates, and whose analysis we repeat, indicate Mr. Sinclair.

Group 2 — Milton Carpenter (see reasons on Page 1).

CAST YOUR VOTE FOR THE GLADES!

The Glades needs and deserves its own State Representative. We'll be taking a back seat in Tallahassee if this need is not met.

YOUR VOTE will be the determining factor. As we see it Milton Carpenter can help you if you help him.

Consideration brings out these indisputable facts:

A republican member of the House from Palm Beach County would be an obstacle in a democratic House, because rather than a watchful curiosity in his accomplishments, a tendency to deterring interruptions in his efforts may be expected from the predominantly democratic membership.

A Gold coast native representing the Glades in Tallahassee will be weighted with social, civic and business interests of that part of the county, to our detriment — we've historically been represented by a "West of 20-Mile Bend" resident who knows what a "Saw" or a "Jewmacker" is.

So, we've a choice to make — Milton Carpenter or Geraldine Weaver.

Mrs. Weaver is without wide experience in civic affairs or public office.

Mrs. Weaver is the wife of our County Commissioner, and "it's too much family" to fill TWO important public offices.

Mr. Carpenter served on the Board of Public Instruction, wants the job seriously and is "ringing door bells" on the coast with heretofore political allies and others.

Mr. Carpenter appears most likely to successfully wrestle with the potential republican candidate for east coast votes.

So, as we see it, it's Milton Carpenter!

Boat-A-Cade Listings

Increase

Howard Banta, Executive Director has notified the Belle Glade members of the Okeechobee Waterway Association, Bob Lee, Charlie Goodlett and Avery Bass that the registrations for participants in the annual Boat-A-Cade, east to west coast, are passing the 96-craft mark of last year.

"Our estimate this year is that the figure will be well over 100 craft, with 200-500 persons involved," says Mr. Banta.

The festivities will begin with a banquet at Francis Langford's famous "Outrigger," at Jensen Beach. The following morning the flotilla will cruise the length of the St. Lucie, cross the Lake and stop over for the night at Clewiston, going on to Ft. Myers where a proper finale will be effected.

Craft in the air — planes, not boats — will patrol the waterways; the Coast Guard Auxiliary will add to the safety measures, from embarkation to docking. Emergency craft with paraphernalia anticipated of use will accompany the flotilla. "Flat tires," empty gas tanks, broken propellers and other happenstances common to nautical movement usually keep the "wrecker crew" engaged.

The hazards of this cross-state waterway, it is suggested, are not comparable with the land route — State Road No. 80.

The scheduled movement of the group does not permit the use of canoe paddlers, but any motorist, of it is invited, even if it's "gait" is lowly and slowly.

Jackonville supporters believe it will be Roberts in Duval County; Committee work in Duval County has been chipping away at the "home-town" vote for one of the other finalists, and surprising results are predicted from the lower east coast.

Palm Beach County could give Roberts a lead that will be hard to overcome, while the Gulf Coast areas are claiming Representative Roberts as a "na-gait" is lowly and slowly.

"Where Is Thy Sting?"

Four-laning of State Road No. 80 would, undoubtedly, provide definite traffic control at Duda Road, a dangerous crossing, as well as properly contoured approaches to the bridge.

Check another death to conditions not alleviated in fact, nor in definite plans, by politically oriented candidates who subordinated the plans of 80%+ of our Legislature.

Arrow indicates head of body pinned in cab by tons of fresh vegetables loaded on trailer.

Unnecessary Death - State Road 80!

A reportedly experienced driver encountered a tricky contour of surface in the approach to the Duda Road Bridge from State Road No. 80, resulting in the tractor-trailer driven by him catapulting head-first into 30 feet of water on the east side of the bridge.

Loaded with 600 cases of mixed vegetables, with an estimated 75-pounds-plus average weight, the trailer's full weight crushed the cab and pinned the driver in such manner that difficulty was experienced in removing his body after the rig had been lifted from the canal.

Jack Weicht, 42, of 140 SE 2nd Street, Pompano Beach, was driving the vehicle owned by his brother Joe Weicht of the same address. Driver Weicht was a 12-year veteran of the armed forces with service in World War II and Korea, and was unmarried.

Editorials

Yes it is HIGH TIME Glades folks get the GO-TEAM on the "Hot Line" to inform our friends that one candidate reached HIGH and another STANDS TALL in defeating 4-LANNING OF SR. NO. 80 and US 27, or any other road improvement in the GLADES.

Mr. HIGH says in effect that Mr. KELLY STANDS TALL as the greater of evils as a gubernatorial candidate.

Mr. KELLY intimates that the candidate from Miami reaches HIGH in his potential as the wrong man for Governor.

Each agrees that they neither should be elected — we agree with both!

Both have demonstrated unappreciative attitudes towards "The Nation's Winter Food Basket."

A majority of their constituents at home agree that Mr. High has made an acceptable Mayor for Dade and Senator Kelly did a job in Tallahassee — both in lesser political areas than that to which they now aspire.

The question is have they grown enough to tackle the statewide problems with any degree of anticipated success?

Both flaunted the opinion of 2/3 of the House and Senate.

Governor Burns followed a successful and long-lived guidance of Jacksonville's growth as Mayor, with a demonstration of his leadership in state matters.

BURNS is the ONLY Governor who offered a practical and definite plan to recognize the Glades, Palm Beach County and all of southeast Florida in their need for modern traffic lanes.

Roads are not the only problems the state will have and Burns has substantiated his TALK with ACTION!

Conversation about spending the state's money for gas is smoke. Kelly and High are doing a lot of talking trying to get the privilege always accorded the Governor of using the state's gasoline.

We say "Scratch the Back of those who scratch yours" and VOTE FOR BURNS!

He had his sleeves rolled up and his fingernails trimmed for "scratching."

Watch Your Hide!

Taxes have been described as the price we pay for civilization. By the looks of things, we may be getting too civilized for our own good.

The editor of the Belton, Texas, Journal and Democrat, observes that: "More taxes seem to be coming. Something ought to give . . . and many of us hope the Great Society will be curtailed, while we are still alive to enjoy the society we already have. Some government economist look upon us taxpayers as sheep, figuring we can be sheared and sheared again. True, but you can skin a sheep only once!"

If any of the voters are worrying about this, they might look in the mirror to find the cause of their concern. When we ask federal handouts we get them for votes — but we pay for them in taxes, and then some. When we send a tax dollar to Washington, the "free lunch" we get back may only be worth fifty cents, with political overhead, carrying charges and inflation taken out. If we want to give our wool for civilization, but keep our hides for ourselves, we can make our wishes known in the voting booth at every opportunity.

NASHVILLE, ARK., NEWS: "More than words the migration to Australia speaks of protest against the Great Society and politicians . . . Fifty years ago, it would have been unthinkable that as many as 4,000 citizens would be fleeing from America to make a new home. It's happening today . . . Freedom from the bureaucrats and from oppressive big government is getting harder to find, backed now into a corner of the Pacific."

TIPTON, IOWA, CONSERVATIVE: "There is an interesting theory that, unless a young person has continuity in his education . . . he will have lost some of the value of his education. This doesn't make much sense to the young men and women who came back to campuses after World War II and set the highest educational standards that have been attained on campuses anywhere . . . It would be better that, at a certain date, say at age 20, every young man, regardless of his status in school, be concerned for military service and that exemptions be given with great reluctance. The right to enjoy the privileges of life in this country should carry with them the obligation to defend this country and the obligation should be shared by all."

SENATE REFUSES TO SUBMIT DIRKEN AMENDMENT

On Wednesday, April 20, the Senate again failed to pass the so-called Dirken Amendment by which every state would be permitted, by statewide vote of its people, to determine that one house only of its legislature may have its membership apportioned on a basis other than that of strict population.

The vote was 55-38 for submission of the amendment, but a two-thirds vote is required.

The fact is that since the beginning of our country most states have adopted the so-called federal plan under which one house of each legislature was set up on a basis other than strict population. The wisdom of having direct representation for sparsely settled or remote areas which were being developed by pioneer people who wished to have a representative from among their own neighbors, whom they could see and talk to about their problems and ambitions for greater development, had become a traditional part of the American system. The 14th Amendment, upon which the Supreme Court based its so-called one-man-one-vote decision, was submitted in 1865 by a Congress whose members later approve new constitutions for all of the Southern states which contained the traditional principle. The 14th amendment could never have been adopted if anyone had dreamed that such an interpretation of its meaning as that announced by the Supreme Court would ever be made.

"About all children are deprived of nowadays is self-reliance."

Certainly money isn't everything. It isn't plentiful,

Most states which ratified it retained the traditional provision in their constitutions up to the present day. When one looks at the undeveloped areas of the midwest and mountain states extending all the way from North Dakota, Montana and Idaho to the Rio Grande, or at the new states of Alaska and Hawaii, it is difficult to understand how any student of government would want to withhold from the people of each state the right to decide for themselves what type of distribution of membership of one house only of their legislature would best serve their needs, with the clear requirement that the other house must always be apportioned on a strict population basis. The form of the Dirken Amendment which was turned down Wednesday required that the legislature of any ratifying state would first have to be distributed on the one-man-one-vote basis prior to ratification. It also required that at the first submission to the voters of the entire state, or any later submission of any different plan of distribution affecting one house of its legislature, there be submitted an alternate plan requiring the strict population basis to apply to both houses of the legislature.

Apparently those who opposed the amendment are not willing to trust the people of each state to decide for themselves this important and even basic question. As the problem becomes more clearly understood in the future I shall expect the number who oppose the amendment will shrink.

principle of the Dirken Amendment to increase and become much more than the two-thirds required by the Constitution to submit a constitutional amendment.

CO-SPONSORSHIP OF TAX RELIEF BILL. I have joined with Senator McCarthy (Minn.) and others in the co-sponsorship of a bill to amend the Internal Revenue Code. If enacted, the measure would assure that employees who are required to move, and who are reimbursed by their employers for certain types of moving expenses, will not be required to pay an income tax on such moving allowances.

SPACE CENTER PICKETING DEPLORABLE. Last Tuesday I called the Senate's attention to the serious aspects of the striking electricians' recent picketing of all five gates at the Kennedy Space Center. This apparent attempt to disrupt construction of great importance to the nation was, in my opinion, indefensible. Action of this sort, in the face of strong requests by the Air Force and NASA is one example which our country should not repeat. Section 1405 of the Taft-Hartley Act or approve the status picketing bill now pending in the House.

WARRENSBURG, MO., STAR-JOURNAL: "The American television audience's appetite for trivia and escape seems to be insatiable. The latest evidence of this was the flood of protests aroused by network cancellation of scheduled shows to permit coverage of the collision of space capsules' record landing after its historic linkup with the Agena rocket."

SAN DIEGO, CALIF., PRESS: "The Central Committee of the World Council of Churches seems to have put itself in an untenable position by laying down specific terms on which it believes peace in Viet Nam may be secured . . . The Council's committee has usurped, in the words of the New York Herald Tribune, a political function for which it bears no constitutional responsibility . . ." The Herald Tribune suggests the clerical upon that would follow if the government should urge an ecumenical movement and specify the concessions that Catholic, Protestant and Jewish faiths should make.

My Neighbors

"Look, you've got your arithmetic homework and I've got to go about it—your function to switch!"

The Secretary of Agriculture has approved the allocation of $200,000 to the Florida Agricultural Conservation Committee to help repair damage to conservation projects and for replanting citrus trees damaged by the recent tornadoes in our state. The cost will be shared by the affected growers to carry out the reforesting program. Fortunately, a survey showed that damage to publicly-owned facilities was not so extensive as to warrant declaring Central Florida as a disaster area. However, assistance in the form of low-interest loans is available in the most affected areas through the Small Business and Farmers Home Administrations.

HOSPITAL FUNDS BOUGHT. Representatives of the Dade County Metropolitan Government were here on Thursday, April 20, to confer with members of our delegation about a past due obligation of the federal government to pay for medical care for Cuban refugees at Jackson Memorial Hospital, Metro Commissioner Lew Whitworth, Hospital Director C. W. Norwood and Auditor Robert Morgan presented audit figures to show that refugee hospital and medical costs have been $1,023,997 more than the county has received in reimbursement by the federal government. I support the position of the county that this expense is not one for the people of Dade County. It is purely a federal expense and should be recognized by the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare.

FOUR RIVER BASINS CONSTRUCTION LAUNCHED. I was honored to participate in groundbreaking ceremonies on Monday, April 11, when construction of the Lake Tarpon Outfall Canal in Pinellas County got under way. This officially launched the Four River Basins projects for which, in cooperation with other members of our Congressional delegation, I have sought justified federal assistance for several years. Prior to the ceremony the officials of the Southwest Florida Water Management District were hosts, in cooperation with the Florida Board of Conservation and the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, at an enjoyable and well-attended luncheon at beautiful Anderson Park on Lake Tarpon.

Now that construction has commenced, I am hopeful that we will be able to appropriate further federal funds on a regularly-scheduled basis so as to complete this vital flood control project without undue delay. The District has been levying and collecting taxes for three years and advises that it is prepared to pay its full part of the cost of the work.

NEWSBOYS VISIT. This week a group of approximately 35 Orlando Sentinel-Star carriers from Brevard County under the leadership of Mr. Robert Government were here on Washington tour, and we were happy to have all of the boys visit us.

STATE REPRESENTATIVE AT NATIONAL 4-H CONFERENCE. Florida had outstanding representation at the annual National 4-H Conference here this week in the Misses Susan Mae Manus, Lutz, and Betty Mifflin, Gainesville, and Barry Gold, Arcadia, and George Lettner, Micanopy. I had the pleasure of greeting this fine group when they visited the office on Wednesday.

Spring Clean-Up: Here's How to Make Home Spic and Span

Spring Clean-Up Week is rolling around again, and you can do your share toward making your home and your community a better place to live by following these few simple suggestions, says the American Insurance Association.

• You can start the clean-up job in your own attic. This is frequently a place where old newspapers, furniture, and other discarded combustibles collect. Go through the newspapers and old magazines, and throw out those you no longer want. There will be a new newspaper arriving tomorrow, and new magazines next week or next month.

• Also, look around the attic and see if there is anything you will never wear. Throw it out or give it to a charitable organization which, in turn, will pass it on to some needy person or sell the garment for rags. Many charitable organizations make a good income through selling old newspapers and rags, and you can help the charity by turning these old combustibles into useful dollars.

• Check the attic lights. If it is not working right, have it repaired by a qualified electrician.

• Now, check fire hazards that may exist in the bedroom closets. If there are old blankets or worn out sheets and other items you may never use again, throw these out, too, or give them to a charitable organization. And, incidentally, never step into unlighted closets with lighted candles or matches. Always use a flashlight. In fact, it is a good plan to keep a flashlight on the shelf in closets that are frequently used.

• In bedrooms, too, check lights, extension cords and switches, and have them repaired by a qualified service man if they are not in good operating order. Window air conditioners should be serviced at least once a year by a qualified maintenance man to be sure the unit is well lubricated and will run smoothly. A dry overheated bearing in a motor can cause an unwanted fire. In bedrooms, too, throw out old newspapers and magazines if they have accumulated.

• If you have smokers in your house, make sure that there are plenty of ash trays in every room, including the bedrooms. And keep them filled. One should never smoke in bed. Matches and smoking are a leading cause of fires, and are responsible for one out of every five fires.

• In the living room and dining room, as in the bedroom, make sure that all electrical equipment is in working order. Check extension cords if you use them, and never run them under rugs, over hooks or nails or in any place where they might be subject to wear or damage. Remember, American Insurance Association studies show that every fifth fire is caused by misuse of electricity.

• In the kitchen all electrical equipment should be checked. If you use a gas range, make sure the pilot light is working properly. If you have a towel rack, it should never be placed where towels will hang over an open flame. Keep range ovens, broilers and burners free of grease, and if you have a grease container it should be kept away from the range.

• Basements, like attics, are places where unneeded combustibles accumulate. Throw out any old newspapers or magazines that have collected. Discard paint in a corner well away from the household heating unit. If you have been painting, and have oily rags, nearly empty paint containers or worn out brushes, throw them out.

If you have an attached garage, cleaning it up is part of the overall job. If oil has dripped on the garage floor during the winter, clean it up and scour the oil-stained spot with a grease-cutting detergent. If you keep gasoline in the garage for use in a power lawn mower or an outboard motor boat, be sure you keep it in containers listed by Underwriters Laboratories. If it is listed, it will bear the U.L. label.

When you clean up your yard, place your rakes on the curb where they can be picked up by the trash collector. It is advisable not to burn leaves. Most communities prohibit open fires and require the householder to get a permit to burn leaves or trash.

One reason civic authorities oppose leaf burning is that the smoke from the fire adds to the contamination of air already polluted to an uncomfortable degree. Another reason is that the sparks from an outside fire, if carried by the wind, can start another fire some distance away.

If you are in a locality which permits the burning of leaves, never start a fire on a windy day. And before you start it, be sure the garden hose is hooked up to the faucet and ready for use in case the fire gets out of hand.

A final note: If you have checked your house from top to bottom as suggested here, and if you have thrown out unneeded combustibles, you have reduced the fire hazards in your home, and, at the same time, made it a pleasant place in which to live.

Postal Savings System Urged To Withdraw Accounts

Postmaster Ross A. Nash today urged depositors with postal savings certificates to withdraw their accounts from Post Offices as soon as possible or as soon as the anniversary date of their certificates are reached.

The Postal Savings System was abolished March 27, 1966, with the signing of Public Law 89-377 by President Lyndon B. Johnson.

Postmaster Nash pointed out that as of April 28, 1966, no deposits can be accepted and no new accounts can be opened. She said that interest will end on the anniversary date of each certificate.

The postmaster said that for convenience all certificates held by a depositor may be cashed at the same time and interest will be paid for each full month they have been outstanding beyond three months from the interest date.

The Postal Savings System was established January 1, 1911, to promote savings in the French style in Guadeloupe and to attract savings of a large number of immigrants who were accustomed to saving at Post Offices in their own country; also, it served as a safe depository for people who had lost confidence in private banks. Today, however, with the growth of banking facilities paying much higher interest rates than the 2 percent interest per annum paid on Postal Savings, the System has out-lived its usefulness for the American people.

Ball-Ethridge Personal Notes

Louise and O. G. McWhorter left last week on their annual trip to their summer home at Whittier, North Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Greer, accompanied by their son, Fred, spent last weekend with son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. R. Terrell and family in Miami. They enjoyed swimming in the pool at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stewart visited relatives in Miami over the weekend and were accompanied home by their daughter, Tina, who enjoyed a week with her aunt.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Matthews attended graduation at Florida State University last Thursday, when their son Frank, Matthews, received B. S. and A&S degrees. They returned home Friday.

Family meals at the home of the James A. Ball, Juniors, the past weekend for the wedding of their daughter, Frances Ball, on Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. James A. Ball, III, and children Katherine and Andy of Tallahassee; Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Stierk, Tallahassee; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Osking, and boys, Erik and Danny, from Miami; Mrs. Fred Gill and daughter, Miss Susan Gill, of Zephyrhills.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo James from Jacksonville visited during the past weekend at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Collier, along with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Parker, his grandmother, and his sisters.

House guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Hewitt the past week were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Herring from Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, who arrived on Wednesday and left Friday. While here they enjoyed fishing and caught their limit in bream and shell cracker almost every day. Coming from Miami were weekend guests Mr. and Mrs. Jim House, who also like the fishing.

Sgt. Jimmy McElhenry, stationed at the naval base at Jacksonville, visited his wife, Rachel, here last week end.

Mrs. Lester Nelson from Plentywood, Montana is enjoying a two weeks visit here with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Zumph. Last week, the Zumphs and their guest toured the central part of the state taking in Silver Springs, Cypress Gardens, Bok Tower and other interesting sights. Mrs. Nelson was especially interested in the Glades vegetables and went on tour to the fields with Mr. Zumph. The ladies also went sightseeing on the East Coast and to Palm Beach. Mrs. Nelson will be leaving for home on Sunday.

Besides the wide choice of containers, you also have a choice in milk itself. There's regular whole milk, skim milk with most of the butterfat removed, 2 percent milk containing 2 percent butterfat, buttermilk, chocolate milk, and flavored drinks like the eggnog available at holiday time. Milk is one of man's most nourishing foods, and its refreshing wholesome flavor makes it a fine drink any time of day.

The wedding will take place July 22 at the First Baptist Church of White City.

Temperatures For Orchids

Temperature is the second most important factor when pricing orchids. Light is first.

A night temperature between 60 and 65 is considered best if you're growing a mixture of various species.

Phalaenopsis grows best at night temperatures between 65 and 70 while Dendrobium will grow best at a night temperature of 50.

All the plants, according to Dr. E. W. McElwaine, chairman of the Florida Agricultural Experiment Stations' Department of Ornamental Horticulture, will grow well if the minimum night temperature is kept between 60 and 65.

Ball-Ethridge Vows Said In Methodist Church

MRS. ROY M. ETHRIDGE, JR.

In a simple and lovely wedding Saturday at 4 p. m. in Community Methodist Church, Miss Frances Marian Ball became the bride of Roy Munroe Ethridge Jr. Rev. W. R. Beal officiated at the double ring ceremony before the altar flanked by candelabra and standing baskets of spring flowers.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Ball, Jr., 566 S. E. 1st St., Belle Glade. She is graduate of Belle Glade High School, and is attending Florida State University where she is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma, Angel Flight, Garnet Key and past Secretary-Social Chairman of Junior Class.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Paul S. Bearden and the late Mr. Roy M. Ethridge of Wolf Creek, Tennessee and Belle Glade. He is a graduate of Belle Glade High School, attended Palm Beach Junior College and is a senior at Florida State University, where he is a member of Sigma Nu Social Fraternity and Alpha Delta Sigma Advertising Fraternity. He is an army reservist.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Gordon Corbin, organist. Miss Fay Johnson, soloist sang "Because," "Wither Thou Goe," and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father the bride was radiant in a floor length gown of silk organza over taffeta with re-embroidered Alencon lace accenting the bodice elbow length sleeves hem and the chapel length train. Her elbow length veil of silk illusion was attached to a headpiece of lace and silk. She carried a cascade bouquet of white iris and white roses showered with lily of the valley and velvet ivy. (The iris is the bride's favorite flower.)

SUNDAY'S SERMON

APRIL

April brings a season of contrast. It is spring. If the weather may be unpredictable on a day-to-day basis, it is assured that winter has had its turn and is cheered by the welcome song of the bird and the equally welcome sight of new life in the fields and forests.

It is easy to feel young at heart. We must resist the urge to become footloose and fancy free. We could leave our lives and responsibilities and contemplate the ramblings of a brook as it courses the meadows, flowing endlessly to the sea.

In this season of new life, surrounded by the orders of nature's beauty coming forth in a burst of color and greenery, our thoughts eventually must turn to the higher meaning and the higher purpose of our own existence. Spring can be for us a time of spiritual rebirth. We have but to turn our thoughts and our steps to the church by the side of the road. There now is being told the story of the example of the life of Christ upon earth. In this lesson of dedication and sacrifice we may rekindle a strong spirit of faith and purpose.

Make STRONG COMMUNITIES

Read James 1:17-22

Let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath.

During my boyhood days on the farm, one of the most satisfying experience I had was the praise from my father when I succeeded in doing, something in a way that pleased him. He would say, "I couldn't have done it any better myself."

Obedient children make parents happy, and satisfied parents make the children happy. The father's respect for the mother and the mother's respect for the father show clearly that they love each other. This gives to the children a good sense of security.

The Bible stresses the responsibility of parents to exercise authority in harmony with God's spirit of compassion and mercy so that willing obedience comes naturally. Keeping family life in repair depends on cooperation between good parents and obedient children.

PRAYER: We thank, Thee, dear Father, for parents who serve Thee with willing obedience, and who depend more on love than on law. In our Savior's name we pray for children who appreciate the blessing of good parents. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

A sense of security and mutual concern oils the machinery of family relations.

Roy E. Whitehead, Laborer (Iowa)

Wisdom

"Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools."

—Romans 1:22

The wise man knows that the quest for knowledge is never completely fulfilled. The individual who "knows-it-all" knows only what is of interest and is blind to many of the great wonders and mysteries of life upon earth.

Wisdom must be sought after and, the more it is realized, the more the wise become humble and hungry for greater knowledge and insight.

Assuming a cloak of wisdom accomplishes nothing.

ITEM: The well dressed person is the one who selects from current styles only those that best become to her. The current fashion is on youth-fashions that are feminine and elegant. Softer shapes are closer to the body in natural lines, bias cuts, and easy pleated skirts. These silhouettes require cupped, drapable fabrics.

South Bay News

Mr. W. C. Allen spent Saturday night and part of Sunday visiting in Lantana where he stayed with his daughter, Mrs. Jane Murray, and JaBee, his granddaughter.

Mrs. Robert Roadman is giving a Piano and Organ recital for her pupils on May 1st, beginning at 3 pm at the South Bay Baptist Church.

Mrs. Fay Tillman and her children visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mackey, in Pahokee last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Yonson had as weekend guests their daughter Gail, of Lake Worth, and Gail's fiance Mr. Larry Hubbard of Key Biscayne.

Mrs. "Bully" Walker and her two children, Terry &

Erick, of Andytown, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kvasniewski on Wednesday and Thursday of last week.

The O'Neal Walker and J. K. Davis families entertained old friends from Cape Girardeau, Missouri, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kramer, who spent several days in the Glades passing through on their way to a convention in Miami Beach. The Kramers attended church services with the O'Neals Walker family last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Davis have had for their house guest for the past few weeks Mrs. Davis' mother, Mrs. Florence Shott, of Brewton, Alabama.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Driggers entertained their daughter-in-law from Okeechobee last Friday, when Mrs. Jessie Driggers spent the day in South Bay. On the weekend the T. L. Driggers visited their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Beagle and their grand daughter Jamie Anne, in Okeechobee.

Mr. and Mrs. Berthold Pelka and family have had as their house guest, Mrs. Emmy Dohm from Liederheim-Karlruhe, Germany. Mrs. Dohm has been at the Pelka home since last August, and left last Monday to return to Germany from Port Everglades on the liner Hascam. Mrs. Dohm is the wife of Mr. and Mrs. Pelka and Caroline, went to dock side to wish Mrs.

Dohm bon voyage.

Frederick Elfers, now attending Florida Air Academy, brought a friend home with him for the week end, Mr. Ray White. Mr. and Mrs. Elfers drove the boys back to Ft. Lauderdale on Sunday.

American Leg. And Aux. Unit Wins Awards

The South Bay American Legion and the South Bay Legion Auxiliary received five certificates of merit at the 20th annual district constitution conference held last Sunday, April 24th, at Lotley Henson Post 162 in Deerfield Beach, Commandant Vernon Henderson, Adjutant Allen, and Auxiliary President Mrs. Vernon Henderson were delegates of South Bay Post 161 at the conference.

A Pot Luck Supper is planned by Post 161 for May 3rd at 8:00 P. M. at the recently refurbished Legion Hall in South Bay, Adj. Allen, announced, and invited all eligible Legion members and Auxiliary members to come to the supper.

LET'S LOOK AT THE RECORDS

Marty Robbins, popular singer of today, recently rendered a dozen country inspirational favorites in his first album of religious songs, "What God Has Done." Others are "When the Roll is Called Up Yonder," "An Evening Prayer," "What God Has Done," "You Gotta Climb Almost Perseus," "There's Power in the Blood," "The Great Speckled Bird," "Will the Circle Be Unbroken? Who at My Door is Standing and Have Thine Own Way, Lord."

Simon and Garfunkel, idols of the teen crowd who recently were awarded a gold record for their single release of "The Sounds of Silence," have made an LP built around the hit single. The song, their debut single for Columbia Records, reached the number-one position on the charts and sold over 1,000,000 copies. The LP contains 10 other topical songs, love songs and fun songs performed in the distinctive manner for which Simon and Garfunkel are famous. "The Sounds of Silence," as well as nine of the remaining 10 songs on the LP, were composed by Simon.

For their first recording on Columbia Records, the 10 Tuff Guitars, under the direction of Mike Bryan, have assembled a collection of popular hit tunes that were proved best sellers as single records. The LP, entitled "The Swinging Electric Sounds of the 10 Tuff Guitars," features electric bass, electric piano, electric mandolins, electric guitars, electric celeste and percussion. The group, whose performance is well suited for listening or dancing, has recently completed a series of successful nightclub engagements throughout the country.

Vocalist Paul Anka was born in 1941, the same year as the United States Savings Bond Program. Both are going strong and Paul goes along with the idea that "The world of tomorrow is worth saving for—with United States Savings Bonds."

Elfers-Hackett Engagement Told

CLARA ANN ELFERS

Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Elfers of South Bay announce the engagement of their daughter Clara Ann to Mr. P. Van Vleet, son of Lt. Col. and Mrs. Wallace J. Hackett, of Fairfield, Iowa.

Miss Elfers is now a junior at Parson's College in Fairfield, Iowa, with a major in pharmacy. She is a graduate of Okeechobee High School, Palm Beach Junior College, and attended the University of Florida at, before transferring to Parson's College.

Mr. Hackett is a graduate of Fountain Valley School in Colorado Springs, Colorado. He received his Bachelor of Science degree from Parson's College, and has been affiliated with Lambda Chi Alpha Fraternity, American, and Beta Beta Beta.

He is presently a tutor in the Biology Department at Parson's College, and is listed in Who's Who among students in American Colleges and Universities. The wedding will be an August wedding, and will announce the date later.

Dr. Huey and Multiflora. "Of the three, Fortuniana gives the best results, Dr. Huey the next best and Multiflora, the least because it is short-lived under Florida conditions," the researcher says.

Movers Each year about one out of five married couples change addresses. Many couples move to another place near where they lived before, but many more go to another part of the same state or to a different state.

A plentiful supply of roses can be had as long as you care for the plants properly and allow each to reach maturity. "Roses are going to require grooming such as selective trimming at monthly intervals," Dr. McFadden says, "and they'll also need weekly applications of fungicides like Dithane M-54, Maneb and Platan to control the leaf disease blackspot."

Additional grooming will include the removal of faded flowers after each "flush of bloom." This improves the plant's appearance and stops fruit development. Except for grooming and pest control differences, cultural practices for growing roses in Florida are similar to those for growing other flowering shrubs.

Roses grow large here in Florida and should be given "more space than in colder climates." Winter protection practices such as deep planting or covering are not necessary, but anchoring taller varieties to cut down wind damage is needed.

Dr. McFadden says Everblooming varieties grafted on rose fortuniana rootstock are recommended, but these varieties with other kinds of root systems "can be grown successfully."

If you already have your rose garden underway that's one thing, but if you're planning to start a new one an important factor in buying roses is the kind of root system. Experiment Station tests have determined that roses grafted on the fortuniana stock grow larger, more vigorously, produce more flowers and live several years longer than plants grown on any other rootstock.

Grafted plants are made up of two different roses. One forms the rootstock while the other forms the top. Most of the roses sold have been grafted on one of three rootstocks — Fortuniana, Dr. Huey and Multiflora.

"I REMEMBER" BY THE OLD TIMER

From Cora Kenney, Muskogee, Oklahoma: I remember when people traveled by wagon through the Indian Territory, cooked by camp fire with two cooked ticks and a pole to hold the pot, made biscuits in a Dutch oven and ate the stew of fat bacon, rabbits and vegetables with relish. One time we came to a round try store. While George was buying groceries, the Indians gathered around my mother and me, feeling our clothing, examining our bed, admiring our horses and wagon, and hearing the life out of us. They meant no harm, but were just curious. But, we had never seen Indians before.

We traveled dim trails, often stuck in bogs. Sometimes rain caught us at camping time. We crossed a river with quicksand. A man waded across with a canoe to lead the way. I remember how the wagon seemed to jump off the rocks.

I would like to take such a trip again. But civilization has caught up with us.

Pooled Interviews Being Held As Glades Harvest Season Wanes

Harvest season in the Glades is soon to end, and every Gladian knows just what he may not know is how the many thousands of workers get about the country where their services are needed by the strawberry, cherry, truck gardeners, and other growers to the north.

The Florida State Employment Service office in Belle Glade is one of many such offices in Florida where "Pooled Interviews" are going on right now, according to Mr. Kenneth M. Labor Representative at the Belle Glade office.

Last Thursday Mr. Mosely, manager of the local office, was told to farm labor representatives from most of the states lying on the eastern seaboard of the United States, and from other states such as Michigan where agricultural help is needed.

Group conferences of farm labor representatives are called "Pooled Interviews" by the employment people. Employment officials of all states will need farm labor to cooperate to help make the exodus of laborers from one agricultural area to another an orderly and efficient affair.

At the pooled interviews farm labor representatives meet with local growers and farm labor crew leaders for the purpose of filling orders given by the growers back home. A "crew leader" is not an official of the employment service, but is an individual who owns some kind of transportation in which he can haul a group of laborers from one place to another.

A crew leader may make just one trip with a load of laborers, or he may make a number of trips back and forth from labor supply to labor market. If he makes just one trip, he usually takes a job in the area where his transportation will be making money for him. If his bus is not full, he will make efforts along the way to obtain more passengers.

The crew leader's expenses are paid by the grower who needs the men he is hauling, and usually the grower agrees with the laborer himself to defray at least a part of the cost of transportation. In many cases the laborer's entire cost of travel is paid by the grower.

Human Relations. I arrived in West Palm Beach for the first meeting at the time agreed upon and some forty minutes after its scheduled beginning found that the representative had cancelled the meeting.

"A subsequent meeting was scheduled and also cancelled by telephone call to me on the night preceding the scheduled meeting. I can only assume that the Council does not wish any discussion of this matter with those vitally interested."

"When I, as a parent and as a member of the Human Relations Council, failed to meet two appointments with Mr. Williams for a full and free discussion of a matter so vital to the future of Scouting."

"During the past week I have met with Girl Scout officials and discussed this matter with them very completely. This being a problem involving parents and scout leaders, I was quite surprised that any other groups or organizations would enter into any public statements without discussion with the people most directly concerned."

The two separate occasions in recent days, meetings were arranged at which I would be able to have a discussion with a representative member of the County Chapter of the Council on

Lions Enjoy

Music

Belle Glade Lions heard a concert presented by 80 of Mrs. Janis Fleeth 7th, grade music pupils at the Lions Club weekly luncheon meeting in the Belle Glade Civic Center, Wednesday.

Mrs. Fleeth, music teacher at the Junior High School, directed the pupils concert. Sixteen members of the 8th grade joined with the 7th grade in the final presentation, "Let There Be Music."

Fred Jim Wierenga was program chairman for the day. Mrs. Walter C. Bailey accompanied the chorus of the Central and South Florida Flood Control, the low bidder, Murphy Construction Co., of West Palm Beach, is free to commence actual construction of the bridge over the Hillsboro Canal near Cleveland Motors.

According to the contract 100 calendar days are allowed for completion of the project.

A 10-foot floor to the bridge, with a walkway on the west side for pedestrians, enables the passage of north-south bound traffic to the relief of the Main street bridge.

Especially desirable is the traffic of pupils and parents to the Gove Elementary school from the northeast section of the city.

The construction of this bridge was an important item in the campaign proposals of the present City Commission.

Reminiscing brings to mind the single two-way narrow bridge at the present site of the Main Street crossing.

Since that time there has been added the walkway to the Belle Glade Elementary school from the northeast section of the city.

South Bay Commission Meets

The South Bay City Commission at its meeting of Monday, April 25, 1966—

—Executed application for Federal Loan for payment of engineering services in the planning of future street storm water disposal and sanitary sewer utilities.

—Adopted a resolution which "closed, vacated, and abandoned" a public alley to the public forever.

—Discussed street lighting problems.

—Heard Chief of Police Several discuss police department problems and his recommendations for reorganization of the department pay scale and related matters.

—Approved Chief of Police's recommendation that Mr. Franklin Simons, former Cleveland police officer be employed on a temporary basis pending Civil Service Board action, to replace Mr. H. B. Fritz, who resigned last Wednesday.

—Adopted an ordinance revising the pay scale of the plant.

—Decided to meet with the water plant engineers and contractor regarding payment of certain bills, and regarding other matters related to the construction of the plant.

Regular meetings of the City Commission are held on the second and fourth Mondays every month at the City Hall, and the next public meetings are scheduled for May 9 and May 23.

Avenue E Bridge Underway Soon

With the acceptance by the State Road Department of the planned tie-in with State Road No. 80, and the previous permission of the Central and South Florida Flood Control, the low bidder, Murphy Construction Co., of West Palm Beach, is free to commence actual construction of the bridge over the Hillsboro Canal near Cleveland Motors.

According to the contract 100 calendar days are allowed for completion of the project.

A 10-foot floor to the bridge, with a walkway on the west side for pedestrians, enables the passage of north-south bound traffic to the relief of the Main street bridge.

Especially desirable is the traffic of pupils and parents to the Gove Elementary school from the northeast section of the city.

The construction of this bridge was an important item in the campaign proposals of the present City Commission.

Reminiscing brings to mind the single two-way narrow bridge at the present site of the Main Street crossing.

Since that time there has been added the walkway to the Belle Glade Elementary school from the northeast section of the city.

Vegetable Field Day Thursday, May 5, By Ev Exp Station

Thursday, May 5th, has been announced as the Annual Vegetable Grower's Field Day at the Everglades Experiment Station by Mr. Emil Wolf, General Chairman for the event. Associate County Agent, John Causey will act as master of ceremonies, and will assist in tours of the station research plots.

Dr. Purse, Director of the Everglades Experiment Station, will open the day's program at 9:15 A.M. with a welcoming address.

R. S. Showalter, horticulturalist from the University of Florida at Gainesville, will discuss the results of his studies of the problems connected with the prepackaging of sweet corn. This subject is of great interest to growers and packers in the Glades.

Other members of the University of Florida who will participate in the program are Dr. F. S. Jamison, Chairman of Department of Vegetable Crops who will discuss the "DARE" program—Development of Agricultural Resources.

Dr. Meyer will discuss the control of nematodes, and Dr. Orsenigo will speak on hereditary factors in the Glades.

Dr. Burdine will discuss glaucoma, tapping, and subsiding, and potato production in the Glades.

Dr. Forsee and Mr. Wolf have planned a comprehensive day for Glades growers, and have taken special care to ascertain that all subjects will be oriented toward helping Glades farmers.

They expect from 125 to 150 visitors. Mr. Wolf stated, "and some visitors from other areas and from out of state come to see our research plots."

Members of Dr. Forsee's staff at the Experiment Station to participate in the program are Dr. J. R. Orsenigo, associate entomologist; Dr. H. W. Burdine, associate soils chemist; Dr. V. L. Guzman, associate horticulturist; Mr. W. G. Genung, associate entomologist; Mr. W. W. Deen, Jr., Assistant in Agricultural Engineering; and Mr. Emil Wolf, horticulturist and general chairman for the field day.

The prepackaging of sweet corn discussion by R. S. Showalter directs attention to a process which can lead to more profits to the farmer. Showalter has conducted a study of the tenderness of prepackaged sweet corn which he will also present to those who attend.

Subjects discussed will cover a wide range of interests. Dr. Meyer will discuss early blight in celery, and Mr. Deen will discuss the mechanical harvesting of vegetables with emphasis on celery and cabbage.

Plant diseases and their control will be discussed by Dr. Meyer who has done a great deal of study on the early blight found in celery. Dr. Winchester's subject will be the control of nematodes, and Dr. Orsenigo will speak on hereditary factors in the Glades.

Dr. Burdine will discuss glaucoma, tapping, and subsiding, and potato production in the Glades.

Margo Averill

Elected Head

Of Student Body

The Student Council of Dunbarton College of Holy Cross is pleased to announce the election of Miss Margo Averill as President of the Student Body. Miss Averill is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Averill of 615 Southeast Second Street, Belle Glade, Florida.

As a freshman Margo was chairman of Parent-Daughter weekend and a member of the Resident Students' Council. Sophomore year she held the office of Student Council Representative for her class. This year as a junior biology major, Margo is Judiciary Chairman of the Student Council, the first underclassman to have ever held this office.

Miss Averill is active in intercollegiate circles and served on the Executive Steering Committee for the District of Columbia's Student Leadership Prayer Breakfast. She also represented Dunbarton in Madison, Wisconsin last summer as 1,200 student body leaders from all over the United States gathered at the National Student Association Congress.

Miss Averill will be formerly installed in her new office on May 1, 1966 in a solemn ceremony in the college chapel.

FAMILY POT LUCK

BY HELEN HALE

Magic in Meals

Soup and sandwiches can make a magic meal in quick time. Add fruit and a beverage and it's well balanced, too.

Why not try a beef broth with noodles, some whole kernel corn and a dash of chili powder for the soup? This goes well with toasted cheese sandwiches, fresh pineapple and milk.

Shredded carrot and tuna can be added to cream of potato soup for something interesting. The sandwich? Tomato and lettuce.

A meat-banquet soup doesn't need a sandwich but it's extra good with hot buttered garlic rolls or bread with this a chocolate or vanilla pudding or baked custard.

Cream of spinach or asparagus soup gives real satisfaction with bean and bacon sandwich. Add tomato slices to the sandwich for flavor and color contrast.

One of the bean soups goes nicely with hot dogs in everything on a bun. Ice cream is the dessert.

Helen's Favorite:

Snappy Green Beans (4 servings)
2 cups green beans
1 tablespoon chopped onion
1/4 cup chili sauce
1 tablespoon butter
Salt and pepper to taste
Cook green beans over low heat until tender. Combine remaining ingredients and simmer on low heat to blend flavors. Add to green beans with salt and pepper.

Antiquing

Antiquing with the new short-cut kits is an easy way to make old furniture look like new or give a new piece of furniture the charming appearance of age. However, undercoating or color toner is to be applied with a spray gun, the coating must first be thinned to insure an even flow of paint. Two tablespoons of mineral spirits should do the job.

Deaf Man Perfects Midget Transistor Hearing Aid

If you can hear people talk and can't make out the words clearly, then this will be your answer. An extremely small hearing aid using a tiny energized unit, has been perfected by a man who himself is hard of hearing and has been for over 10 years. With his new aid, even whispers are crystal clear. If interested it is suggested you write HEARING, 2 E. 9th St., Erie, Pa. You will receive full information at no cost or obligation whatsoever. ## Demonstration Cities Proposal Opposed by NAM

The Administration sponsored "Demonstration Cities" program should be rejected according to a statement filed with the Subcommittee on Housing of the House Banking and Currency Committee by the National Association of Manufacturers.

The statement sets forth the following reasons for opposing that the bill not be reported:

(1) The proposed "demonstration cities" program would cost billions of dollars with no assurance of curing the failures of present Federal urban renewal programs. (2) The placement of a Federal Coordinator in each demonstration city would result in the exercise of considerable influence over local agencies. (3) The program would be highly preferential in nature, with sections of 60 or 70 cities picked out by the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development for special benefits. (4) The program will greatly intensify the competition for, and dependence on, funds available from the national government rather than promote vital, creative and imaginative local leadership.

The statement continues that the non-passage of the proposed act would not leave a vacuum of inaction. "The improvement in housing conditions in recent years has virtually all been accomplished by private construction, rehabilitation and demolition effects financed by massive amounts of private funds and in no way connected with the Federal urban renewal program," the statement reports.

Ceylon, the island-nation off the tip of India, produces nearly one-half billion pounds of tea a year, and it all must be picked by hand. Visitors to tea plantations in semi-tropical valleys learn that the words "orange" and "peach" are gradings of size, not quality or taste.

Dear Friends in the Glades,

Like you I'm interested in our county, and feel we need fairer representation in Tallahassee.

I would like to see a fair return of our tax money to Palm Beach County. We get back only 45c for every tax dollar we send to Tallahassee while Liberty County receives $4.70 for every dollar. Lafayette receives $3.62 and Madison receives $2.51. Only two counties suffer bigger losses in money sent to Tallahassee than Palm Beach. This shameful inequality must be changed!

We have seen a mental hospital much needed in South Florida being built in North Florida. We have seen the placing of an appellate court in Vero Beach rather than here, the logical location. We have seen a great portion of Lake Okeechobee taken from us and given to other counties.

This is why I have qualified for the the HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, GROUP 4, Democrat. I live in Lake Clarke Shores but lived in Belle Glade for six years. I am Dean of Boys at Palm Beach High, with a background in teaching Government. I hold Bachelor's and Master's degree from the University of Florida. I am married, the father of three children, an Episcopalian, veteran of World War II and active in various civic affairs. I probably won't be able to contact all of you personally, so if you do not know me I urge you to contact a friend whose word you respect and ask him about my moral and spiritual character.

I favor a four-lane highway to the Glades.

If you want better representation for the people, as I do, I offer you honest, sincere integrity in my efforts to serve you. I think things can be better. I would like your vote.

Obscene Calls By Phone Can Now Be Traced

Southern Bell said today that in many cases it is now possible to successfully trace obscene telephone calls.

This has been made possible through the use of recently developed equipment which is now available in Florida, Charles Leonard, Southern Bell manager, said today.

Leonard explained that the special equipment is being used primarily in aggravated cases where harassment calls are repeated over a period of time. He pointed out that only a limited amount of the call-tracing equipment is available. This and other factors does not permit Southern Bell at this time to meet every request today.

to trace a call.

However, he said the equipment will be used more and more in the future as the Telephone Company and law-enforcement officials step up action against obscene calls.

"Southern Bell has long been concerned about the problem of obscene calls," said Leonard, "and intends to do everything it can to provide the necessary assistance to law enforcement of officials, and people harassed by these obscene calls."

The method of call tracing now being used by Southern Bell does not involve any wiretapping or listening in on conversations, Leonard pointed out. He said the equipment records the number from which obscene calls are placed and that the police then take the necessary steps toward arrest and conviction.

Leonard said that in many cases if the subscriber will immediately hang up when receiving nuisance or obscene calls, the calls will cease. This procedure will, in most cases, discourage the caller.

Mr. Jack M. Peterson, Office Manager of Quaker Oats Co., spent several days in the Glades, and with Bob Lee, Personnel Manager of the Glades Sugar House, "to get acquainted" with the area and the folks here.

Mr. Peterson will move to Belle Glade sometime in early summer, after school days, with the idea of making this his permanent home.

"My first impression of the area is very favorable," says the prospective new citizen, "and I find the people most friendly."

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the present state of world affairs makes it especially fitting that each of us, as citizens of this great nation, should reaffirm its faith in the rule of law and in the supremacy of government by laws rather than men; and,

WHEREAS, the Congress of the United States, and the President by official proclamation, have designated MAY 1 as LAW DAY USA; and,

WHEREAS, the basic aims of Law Day are to foster increased respect for law, for independent courts which uphold the law, and for a deeper awareness of the benefits and responsibilities of citizenship; and,

WHEREAS, liberty and equality for the individual distinguish our system of government from communism under which millions of people today live in fear and tyranny; and,

WHEREAS, no better time could be chosen to call public attention to our great heritage of individual liberty under law;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bill J. Bailey, Mayor of the City of Belle Glade, Florida, do hereby proclaim Sunday, May 1, 1966, as LAW DAY USA in the City of Belle Glade, Florida, and call upon all citizens, organizations and schools to recognize this special day with suitable programs, ceremonies, and educational activities.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Belle Glade, to be affixed this 19th day of April, A. D. 1966.

Veterans

Eligible

For Loans

M. T. Dixon, of the Fla. Dept. of Veterans Affairs, announced this week that any ex-serviceman who has 181 days or more of active duty; any part of which was on or after Feb. 1, 1955, or who was discharged on or after that date for a service connected disability, are now eligible for guaranteed home or farm loans.

Applications for this benefit are available at any Veteran County Service Office.

Boating Tips...

HANDLING CHARACTERISTICS

Bear in mind that your boat's stern always swings out when you turn. You have to get used to this, since it's different than driving an automobile; the front of the car veers right or left when you turn. When your Mercury outboard motor, mounted on the stern, turns to either side, propeller thrust is no longer parallel to the boat's centerline and the stern swings wide. Take this into consideration, or you will clip or bump moored boats, scrape against pilings, and otherwise get into difficulties. To check the boat handling characteristics on turns, pilot it past a marker at different speeds, beginning turns as you pass. Make fairly gentle turns before trying sharper ones to be sure you're acquainted with the boat. While you're "feeling out" the boat, makes runs at full speed past the buoy. Cut the throttle as you come abreast of the marker and observe how little distance you need to come to a dead stop.

Reservations Being Accepted For Youth Conservation Camp

The parents of youngsters 10 through 14 years of age may begin to make plans for the fifteenth annual camping session at the Youth Conservation Camp in the Ocala National Forest, according to W. B. Cope, land, chairman, Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission.

Applications are now being accepted for the following camping sessions for boys: June 12-18; June 19-July 2; July 3-9; July 10-16; July 17-23. The camping sessions for girls begins July 31-August 6, and August 7-13. Girls may attend either one or two weeks.

Applications and information regarding the Youth Conservation Camp may be obtained from offices of the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission in Panama City, Lake City, Ocala, Lakeland, West Palm Beach and Tallahassee. Applications and camping fees are filed with the office of the Youth Conservation Camp, 2520 E. Silver Springs Blvd., Ocala, Florida.

According to Cope, the weekly schedule for the 1966 Youth Conservation Camp will include an improved program on fish and fishing, archery, firearm safety and hunting, a study program on conservation and wildlife, as well as camping, boating and other outdoor sports and recreation. This year's camp will include an advanced program for boys who have previously attended the Youth Conservation Camp.

Camping fees are $30.00 for the one week sessions and $60.00 for the two week sessions.

Be Careful Of Car Keys!

State Hotel and Restaurant Commissioner W. J. Hemrick has issued a warning to guests at hotels and motels in Florida against giving a full set of keys to attendants who park their cars.

Hemrick says a gang of thieves is operating in Florida and central figures in the scheme are parking attendants who make replicas of house keys and send them north to their accomplices.

Along with the house key goes the home address of the traveler which is lifted from the registration books. This information permits a thief to loot and ransack the traveler's home while he is enjoying Florida.

Chalais Breeders Assn. Field Day-Kissimmee May 3

The Eastern Chalais Association will hold its first Field Day on May 3rd at Lyle E. Pritchard's Meadow Land Ranch on Highway 54, 3 miles West of Highway 41, near Kissimmee.

The program starting at 9:30 A. M., will feature a group of well known authorities on the subject of cattle breeding in general and the breeding and crossbreeding of Chalais Cattle in particular.

At noon, a fine movie, in color, narrated by Chet Huntley of T. V. fame, will be shown. This presents, in most interesting fashion, not only the development of the Chalais breed in the United States but also in France, where this breed of cattle originated 200 years ago.

The afternoon program will consist of demonstrations, a review of exhibits, followed by a tour of Meadow Land Ranch.

Top breeders of Chalais Cattle in the southeast will have excellent examples of their cattle on display, valued at several hundred thousand dollars. These will consist of pure-bred and cross-breds, the latter illustrating the splendid results obtained when Chalais vigor is introduced into cattle of other breeds.

A barbecue lunch, featuring a Chalais steer, will be prepared by the Eastern Chalais and Charbray Association and available at the Field Day. The Association charge for this will be $1.50 per person.

The public is cordially invited.

S. highways.

VA Hospitals Open To Any Ex-Service Needy

M. T. Dixon, of the Fla. Dept. of Veterans Affairs, said today that the VA hospitals are now ready to receive applications from any needy ex-serviceman.

Veterans with service on or after Feb. 1, 1955 NOW have basic entitlement to hospitalization in any VA hospital for non-service connected disabilities, or domiciliary care.

These persons needing hospital care can get an application from their local Veterans County Service Officer.

Let's Go Boating!

GOOD PERFORMANCE ADDS TO BOATING FUN

A few secrets and performance tips can add to your boating fun. The following were prepared by the engineering department at Evinrude Motors.

The correct fuel mixture is extremely important for efficient operation and performance of your outboard motor. Although most boatmen realize the dangers of adding too little oil, only a few are fully aware of the dangers of adding too much oil. Excessive oil will cause fouled spark plugs, "smoking" and erratic performance. Follow the manufacturer's recommendations to the letter.

A tachometer is the only sure way to gauge the performance of your outboard motor. Don't trust the "sound" of the engine because this can be deceiving. A tachometer will give you an accurate reading of the engine's rpm's (revolutions per minute). Match this against the performance standards in your owner's manual to make sure your motor is delivering all of its available power and delivering it with maximum fuel efficiency.

Boat trailers need periodic service to insure maximum highway safety and long trailer life. Wheel bearings should be greased and re-packed at the start of each new season. A mid-season check is also recommended. Highway vibrations can loosen wheel nuts so tighten them securely. Adjust the trailer rollers to support the boat hull properly. Replace worn saddling on the trailer bed. Lubricate the coupler, tilt frame, rollers, winch and locking mechanism.

Nine basic items make up a complete outboard tool kit. Make sure these items are aboard at all times: Spark plugs, plug wrench, adjuster, wrench, friction tape, spare propeller and propeller nut, cotter and shear pins, oilers, screw driver and your owner's manual.

Power Boat Regatta In Naples Apr. 30-May 1

Power boat drivers from all parts of Florida and from Alabama, Georgia, Louisiana and other southern states will compete in the second annual regatta for inboards and outboards which will be held on the Bay of Naples at this south-west Florida resort city on Saturday, April 30, and Sunday, May 1.

More than 80 entrants are expected, as against 56 last year. They include motor per of Albany, Ga., the outstanding driver in last year's regatta, and Lew Koehler and Gene Gramblett of Miami, both well known racers. The contestants will bring about $500,000 worth of hydroplanes to Naples for the two-day event.

The races will be staged on a mile and a quarter course at the northern end of the Bay of Naples and each will be a five mile contest. Seventeen heats will be run each day.

The regatta is being staged under the sponsorship of the Greater Naples Chamber of Commerce and is sanctioned by the American Power Boat Association. Ray Dorem of Miami will be the chief referee and Mrs. Henry Shakeshaft of Punta Gorda is the official timer. Her husband, Henry Shakeshaft, a veteran of power boat racing, is on the planning committee of the event.

Roberts Reported Ahead But "He's Running Scared"

Pollsters and newspapers throughout the state report that Emmett Roberts leads the candidates for the Public Service Commission job, with Boyd and Jerry Carter fighting for second place.

Mr. Roberts' himself finds no need for weight control pills, for he's continually "burning the road" in his compact vehicle and shows the effect of long hours of driving, talking, shaking hands in his quest for an IN on the first balloting.

Freight, power and telephone bills are directly controlled by the Commission to which Mr. Roberts aspires, and the Glades has a high per capita portion of these bills daily.

Charges and rates for these services are continually being negotiated in the Glades and the Public Service Commission is the controlling agency.

Some 14,000 Roberts signs are being distributed over the state by a special crew in an air-conditioned van equipped for 24-hour per day use.

Local supporters of Mr. Roberts are now in the midst of an effort to bolster the campaign fund which is administered by Senator Jerry Thomas, with the advice of an Advisory Board headed by Tom Fleming of Boca Raton and including Senator Beth Johnson of Orange County as well as other leaders of our Tallahassee House and Senate.

Anyone desiring to contribute to the Roberts campaign fund, however small or large, may leave checks at THE HERALD.

Maynor Wants Scholarships To Relieve Nurse Scarcity

Jim Maynor, a Democratic candidate for State Representative, at a coffee in Lake Clarke Shores said that state scholarships for nurses will be one way of relieving the serious shortage of nurses.

Four year scholarships should be given to deserving students planning careers as registered nurses, Maynor said. Each recipient would be required to work for a specified number of years in Florida.

The shortage of licensed practical nurses, also hampering Palm Beach County's hospital operations could be alleviated by expansion of existing educational facilities, he added.

The pre-nursing courses at Palm Beach Junior College could be expanded and the program offered by the county's adult education department could be broadened to train more practical nurses, Maynor said.

Maynor also advocated raising nurses' salaries in state institutions to keep them from leaving for more lucrative jobs elsewhere.

"This would put their salaries on a livable basis, which they're not now," said Maynor, the 41 year old Dean of Boys at Palm Beach High School. He is seeking the Democratic nomination for the Group 4 seat in the House of Representatives.

Such a training program would help take care of our future needs, Maynor concluded. "Within a five to six year period we would begin to catch up."

Freighter Amaryliss Will Be Leaving Soon

Glades visitors to coastal beaches have found the freighter Amaryliss a fine attraction, as has everyone who has not had the opportunity to inspect one of the workhorses of the sea at close range.

It is easy to strike up a conversation with anyone who comes to view the ship. Speculation as to "What really happened" is good for as long as you want to watch the ship, and an equally good conversation piece is "How I would get her out of there." All of us landlubbers are especially good on the latter subject.

The 441 foot Amaryliss was blown ashore on Singer Island last September by Hurricane Betsy, and has sat majestically on the beach since then. Small boys wade out just to touch her rough hide, and braver souls swim around her. But she won't be there very much longer.

Her ignominious end will be that of a tow barge being dragged from port to port on the end of a cable, her spacious insides full of bulk grain, or fertilizer, or ore. The State Board of Conservation has ruled that all salvage operations must not endanger the beach, so the owners had to abandon a plan to cut a gap in the offshore reef which has held her prisoner.

The owners have announced that the Amaryliss will be stripped of all machinery and super structure in order to make her light enough to float over the reef. Only an additional three feet of flotation will accomplish this, officials say. Right now the ship is full of water.

place.
The stripping job will require about eight weeks time, officials of the steamship line state.

"Although Congressmen now have a fabulous gymnasium at their disposal, they still do push-ups with the debilitated," Lee Batchelor, Sauk Rapids (Minn.) Herald and Sentinel.

You can't replace EXPERIENCE

Automation was a science fiction word 25 years ago. Yet Broward Williams' experience in that field was responsible for his first assignment when he went to work in the State Treasurer's office. As a representative of a national business machine company, he had helped many banks convert from a pen and ink bookkeeping system to machines. His first job with the State Treasurer's office was to systematize the bookkeeping procedures there. During his 24 years with the State Treasurer's office he has dealt with the many phases of banking, finance and insurance that are a responsibility of your State Treasurer. In the time he has served as State Treasurer, his experience has made it possible to effect an orderly, smooth changeover, along with the institution of many entirely new programs. Broward Williams has a thorough knowledge of state government, experience in all phases of the insurance industry and proven ability to administer this vitally important Cabinet post.

Kill this pellitory weed in sugar cane. Use Atrazine. Here's how:

When you see pellitory weed starting to grow, apply Atrazine 80W herbicide, plus a little surfactant. You'll clean out infestations of this winter annual fast and effectively... without hurting cane.

Atrazine is safe to sugar cane. It will not injure your crop when you apply it as directed on the label. And since it's non-volatile, there's no danger of drift to adjacent, sensitive crops.

Even though Atrazine has proved to control pellitory at any stage of growth, early treatment assures best results. With pellitory under control early, you grow more sugar cane per acre.

That's because Atrazine prevents pellitory from interfering with sugar cane tillering. Also, Atrazine helps make soil moisture and nutrients available for your cane, and not for pellitory weed.

So plan now to grow the maximum tonnage of sugar cane from each acre you plant this season. Just use Atrazine to control pellitory weed this winter.

Contact your local supplier. Or for more information, write us. Geigy Agricultural Chemicals, Division of Geigy Chemical Corporation, Ardsley, New York.

New Conservancy District Office

The new office is located on the Belle Glade side of the Everglades Fire Control District building near the Glades Office Building. The building looks new on the outside, but the interior gives one the impression of old-time efficiency even though the desks are new.

The first voice you hear when you telephone the office belongs to Mrs. Dorothy Groves, secretary to Mr. John, and one of the 12 full-time employees of the District. "We moved into the new building on March 7, 1966," says Mrs. Groves. "The office will look real attractive soon when the grass and shrubs, and flowers start to grow."

Provisions for conferences with farmers and board members were made when the building was designed, as well as provisions for routine maintenance of the District's equipment. There is a "drive through" garage included with the building where workmen can service and make small repairs to vehicles, machinery, and equipment.

The new building replaces the wooden frame structure familiar to most Glades citizens and farmers, located at the intersection of Main Street and Avenue E, which Mr. Bill Jeffries used as his office for many years. Mr. Jeffries has retired to his home in South Bay, and Mr. John was employed to take over the duties of running his district's affairs.

The districts covers 33,000 acres of prized Glades warm muck land, laced with over 150 miles of canals. It is located all around the southern shores of Lake Okechobee with the exception of the South Shore District. Its territory goes half way to Pahokee, near to Clewiston, and extends east to six mile bend on S. R. 80.

The advent of sugar cane farming has affected the operation of the district. "They don't need any more water than is used in vegetable farming, but they need it quicker — we have to raise water levels raised or lowered," Mr. John said. "This means that we must keep the canals open and free-flowing at all times."

Mr. Farmer and Mr. Brooks, each with more than 14 years service to the District, recall that one weed-killing per year was enough when they began working. Now as many as four weed-killing per year are necessary. This means that 333 miles of canal banks must be sprayed with weed killing chemicals each trip. In addition the same ten full time employees maintain ten pumping stations with three pumps per station.

Each year the farmers in the District elect one Board member. Chairman of the Board of Supervisors is Mr. Clarence Knecht, Mr. Walter Hooker, is Secretary-Treasurer, and Mr. "Mutt" Thomas makes up the other member of the three-man board, all of whom are elected for three year terms of office.

The Board of Supervisors has begun a policy of upgrading all equipment own.

ed by the District, in order to keep up with demands of farmers brought about their increased intensive farming practices. For example, malden cane along canal banks was not objected to by the vegetable farmers, but cane farmers understandably find malden cane a highly noxious weed. In addition to malden cane, the District seeks to eradicate Alligator Grass (Gator weed), some types of moss, "T" weed, Eelgrass ("nigger" wool), and of course the water Hyacinth.

Law Day USA 1966

As part of the observance of Law Day USA 1966 the West Palm Beach Rotary Club will present a luncheon program at the George Washington Hotel on Tuesday, May 3, 1966.

The guest speaker that day will be Major General Gilbert L. Pritchard, Commander, USAF Special War fare Center (TAC) Eglin Air Force Base, Florida who will speak on the Rights & Duties of Citizenship Incumbent Upon us as Responsible Americans.

Also as part of the 1966 Law Day observance the Palm Beach County Bar Association will present its second annual "Liberty Bell" award at its monthly meeting at the Town House, West Palm Beach, Florida on Monday, May 9th, 1966. This award is presented by the Bar Association to a lay man (non-lawyer) who in the opinion of the Association best reflected during the previous year a pattern of conduct and community service which strengthened the effectiveness of the American System of Freedom Under Law in Palm Beach County.

Tag Deadline Is Extended To May 20

You are delinquent right now unless you had a 1965 license on your house trailer or mobile home, according to the Glades License Bureau. If you had a 1965 license, it expired the same time as the other tags did.

"We sold only 47 tags yesterday, the day that would have been the deadline," says Mrs. Edwina Young of the License Bureau. "This means that unless people hurry up and buy those car tags they can expect to stand and wait in line later on." The deadline has been extended to May 20 by Governor Burns.

Yellow Leaf Danger Sign For Plants

One sure sign that a plant is in "trouble" is a yellowing of the leaves. This is a symptom of disorder, such as a fever when we are ill.

There are many troubles that will cause leaf yellowing: insects, diseases, lack of fertilizer, lack of water, or iron deficiency. The most perplexing to the gardener is iron deficiency, which can occur even when the plant has ample water and fertilizer and there are no signs of insects and diseases.

Iron anemia in plants shows up by a yellowing between the veins of the leaf. It happens even in good soil because the iron can get chemically "tied up" and not be available to the plant.

The solution to plant iron anemia, soil scientists at the Geigy Chemical Corporation tell us, is to add iron in a form that is always available to the roots. Such a form is Sequestrene® Green Poligone Stimulant, an iron chelate.

Plants can be brought back to lush green very quickly if the trouble is iron deficiency. For instance, Sequestrene sprayed on the foliage will restore green color within 48 hours. It is absorbed right through the leaves. When chelates are applied to the soil — dry or mixed with water — the iron is absorbed through closely. If the veins are green, the roots and color returns with- in a week or ten days. So check any yellow leaves can correct easily.

Poster Principles

There are three kinds of poster people. The first is the one who makes the posters, the club members who work up more than a sweat to purchase poster paper, sketch on it a clever presentation and to complete the poster for a dance, event, or an important occasion. And then he hangs the poster out on the school halls, walls, and favorite student hangouts so that his event will be well attended. This person is praiseworthy.

The second type of person is the one who reads the message, makes a favorable comment, and helps support his school and club by attending. More power to him. But the person who is concerned with, is the third type, the one who scowls at the poster, writes on it, rips it off of the wall, and leaves it on the hall for everyone to trample.

Who likes posters? Haters? Other poster haters? That's who!

What are his motives? Well, that's more complicated. First, these people are left out, or jealous. If they can't be in the Beta Club, then they will make it hard on the ones who are. Secondly, the lack respect. They don't care how much work or money is invested in the occasion if it doesn't hurt them directly. Thirdly, some are so stupid or judgmental that they don't give a hoot what they do, or they think that jerking down a poster is good sport and if there are others of their kind around, they may get a few laughs. And I don't think there are many students who would keep laughing at some of the simple minded comments found written on the posters by some low down joker.

So you get the idea. The poster hater in my opinion, has no place in this secondary school of education. And believe me, I hope some of these rats are brought to justice!

Rams Eliminate Newman

The Rams, led by the three hit pitching of Jorge Rodriguez and the hitting of Tony Latour and Richard Van Landingham, eliminated Cardinal Newman from the Group A tournament April 22, by the score of 4-1, in West Palm Beach.

After Newman took an early lead, the Rams managed the lead on a two run single by Tony Latour scoring Bill Miller and Henry Reonda.

Getting hits for the Rams were Latour with two, Miller, Bryant Davis, Van Landingham and Reonda, one each.

The win gives the Rams the right to play Boca Raton today in the sub-group final there.

Who Is It?

Janice W. — It doesn't look like anybody I know! Jimmy J. — It sure is fat. If it weren't so fat I'd say it was Mary Kate. Pat B. — It's Mary Kate because she always does her cheeks like that. Bobby K. — Sure is Fat! Mrs. Lanier — It's somebody. It can't be a Senator! Jack Keene — This is a pretty baby so it must be an ugly girl. Sara F. — It looks like a boy except for the dress. Johnny M. — It must be Mary Kate because of her fat ankles. Carol W. — Is she still that fat? Pat V. — It must be Humphrey because of the fat cheeks and ankles. Ivan W. — With those ankles and wide eyes it could be none other. Mary Kate — Where did you get that? ! ? picture? It's such an adorable baby. Scottie M. — Is it a Senator? Is it a boy? A girl? Are you kidding? You got me. Are you sure you don't recognize her Scottie? You better look again. It's HUMPERY!

Gossiping Gandy

Hello friends, I guess you know who this is. G' Gossiping Gandy and my guess with the roving eyes. Hey, Donna M., and Linda S., who were your two weekend visitors? Rivera boys maybe? Three boys in 4th period Com. History must get enough to eat because they have to eat lunch twice. Mickey M., who was that girl I saw you with the other night? Mary Kate, you sure drank a lot of milk — wasn't it about 10 cartons you had the other day? George M., what happened to you, car? Couldn't you get Virginia to help you? Pat G. and John Lee, how do you manage all the time you get for lunch everyday. Beverly S., why have you been arriving at school so late in the mornings. Make any steps on the way? Brenda P., those PBIC textbooks are getting mighty heavy to lug around. Rudolph H., you made the cutest baby sister!

Amanda B., Tanya C., and Cheryl S., how did you like your 2-hour lunch period last Friday? Belle Glade sure is lit up thanks to the ROTC Club and their flares. Glad to see you finally got a hair cut Bobby K. Red was getting ready to give you a permanent. It seems that a lot of kids are excited about their acceptance from colleges. Richard Van, seems like you got a pretty important letter in the mail last week. Bryant you sure didn't keep your class ring long did you? Linda L., what is this about you changing colleges from Emory to Boise? Boy! Mrs. Nick's why don't you give the seniors a hand six weeks test next time? Linda H., tell us how to buy lining for your Home Ec. project. Pat W., way to go. Three cheers for you in Speech 5th period.

Mrs. Lanier, what book is wrong staying up all night. Give your students a break. How about going to bed a little earlier. Sharon H., why don't you ever stay home? Seems most of the students can be found every Sunday afternoon on the beach. How's the sunburn — Sara? Laura S., how do you think you could tell us how to pass water?

Jerry C., how does Linda like your hair? Juniors, how are ya'lls from palms coming along? It won't be long now.

Would you believe exactly 37 more days?

Rams Place Third In Conference Meet

The Rams traveled to the conference tract meet Apr. 22. They competed with Boca Raton, Clewiston, Pahokee, Martin County, Jupiter and Okeechobee, the western division. George McDonald placed fourth in 120 yd. high hurdle. Tony Woods placed fourth followed up by Ronnie Ratliff in the 100 yd. dash. McDonald held first place in 440 yd. dash running in 2:06.1. Ratliff also placing second and Vic Riedel fifth. Mike Wilson came in third in the 880 yd. run. In the mile run, Williamson placed first, and Jackie Poole third. McDonald came in third in the shot. Eddie Haines placed third in the Discus. Rams placed third in the mile relay team and the mile relay team came in second place.

Over all, the Rams placed third in the western division scoring 45 points. Boca Raton had 85, Martin County 68, Clewiston 29, Pahokee 26, Jupiter 9 and Okeechobee 5.

Irony Is . . .

Being the first one in the lunch line for the first time in the year and seniors exercise their privilege. Catching measles the day before the Prom. Burning the midnight oil for a big test and your teacher is absent the next day. Sharing your gum with your friends in class and being the only one caught with it. Making 100 on a test that doesn't count because the rest of the class flunked it. Finally getting an A in Journalism and then getting two points taken off your grade for talking which knocks it down to a B. Working three hours on your mechanical drawing and as you draw the last line, spillover your ink. Getting your bookkeeping finished before you discover a 5 cent error. Having to basket your gum before you even get to chew it good. Telling the teacher she made an error in grading your paper, hoping she won't count off, and she does. Putting all your hopes on one college and then not getting accepted. Doing all kinds of extra work before you find out you had one way. Buying your Prom dress three months ahead of time and then gaining or losing ten pounds. Going to see "Harper" in WB and finding out it's a double feature. Bambi is first and you have to be home at 11:00. Having a big date with a new girl at school that you'd like to impress and leaving your wallet at home so she must pay the way.

Exhibit Draws Many Visitors

The Annual High School Art Show, April 19, drew many interested visitors from the student body all day Tuesday and patrons came by during the "Open House" that evening. Mrs. Earwood commented, "Every year our show seems to grow a little." Mrs. Earwood deserves extra credit this year. Though she had been absent from her classes during the past few weeks due to her husband's illness, she has managed to put together the Art Show and make it as great as ever.

Many Uses Of A Snake's Forked Tongue

The common snake utilizes one of its gifts on nature to the fullest extent. This gift is its forked tongue. He often finds these uses solely by instinct. When a snake captures its prey the much used forked tongue darts forth, stabbing a morsel of the unfortunate quarry and greedily slurps it down his throat. Secondly, when the reptile becomes thirsty, it is again put to use. The dehydrated snake thrusts its mouthful object outside its mouth and the prongs immediately swing toward the location of the nearest water supply. Next, the snake uses his tongue for cleaning his long almy body. The rasping tongue slithers over his body scouring slime, lice and ticks and rodent grease from the outer surface of the prostrate body. Finally, the snake makes use of the slender appendage in combat with other snakes. Reaching out, he entangles his adversaries esophagus often with fatal results.

NOTE

This is a Primary Election
THEREFORE
Voters can only vote for the Democratic Candidate and Republicans can only vote for Republican Candidates.

DIRECTIONS FOR VOTING ON THE VOTING MACHINE AT A PRIMARY ELECTION

- 1st. Move the Red Handle of the Curtain Lever to the right as far as it will go and leave it there. This will close the curtain around you and unlock the machine for voting.
  - 2nd. Turn down pointer over name of each candidate that you wish to vote, from this position  AND LEAVE IT THERE.
  - 3rd. After arranging your ticket, LEAVE THE POINTERS TURNED DOWN IN THE VOTING POSITION move the "Red Handle" to the left as far as it will go and leave it there. This will automatically register a vote for each of the candidates for whom you voted and at the same time will turn back the voting pointers and open the curtain.
- REMARKS: That no votes are registered until the "Red Handle" is moved to the left to open the curtain. Therefore, as long as the curtain is closed you can change your vote as many times as you desire by simply turning back the pointer over the name of the candidate for whom you do not wish to vote and turning down the pointer over the name of the candidate for whom you do wish to vote. The machine will not allow you to vote for more than the proper number of candidates.

My Favorite Ruin?

By Jean Roemer

And now, on to Greece (where you need an ever bigger imagination to "see" how the ruins must have looked once). A rugged country with snow-capped mountains, with hardy, serious-minded folk. Yet who dance with gaiety and drink their fill of ouzo and "resin-ato" wines which have been mellowed in barrels coated with resin. Small wonder they are fighters.

I always knew Greeks were smart. The Communist Party is outlawed.

All the skeletons in the museum in Heraklion, Crete, are about 3,500 years young and they have perfect teeth — no cavities. That Crete gets around.

Such male camaraderie! They sing together like opera baritones, and when two Greeks spontaneously get up and begin dancing a la "Zorba" — this should not be missed.

An even louder "Ouch!" Greek oranges are better than Egyptian ones. Their pastries are absolutely yummy, but their brown and black olives, even after treatment, are most odd tasting and are as hard as rocks. But the oil is excellent. How does that strong flavor get in the cans sold in our supermarkets? They have delicious red and white beams as big around as a quarter, and if you want a beked spinach turnover, just ask for it.

On many of the islands there are fields of red poppies, and on Crete, I was amazed to find miniature wild irises. A Greek Admiral's widow, with whom we shared our balcony on Independence day (plus an occasional maid, cutest pom-poms on their shoes. And don't let those flouncey, pleated skirts fool you, either. YES is pronounced "ney" NO is "o-kee." If this doesn't get you in trouble, just try reading their road signs. We wound up hobbling along a goat trail, three mountain ranges off course. Oh well, there is always that little shrine beside the road where you can pray for deliverance. If for no other reason, they must be there for tourists who insist on "U Drive It" excursions.

On Rhodes there was the typical little old woman in black riding her donkey side saddle, her feet encased in boots and swinging in that strange kicking rhythm.

Do elevators stick even in the finest of Greek Hotels? Ask Bert. For thirty minutes he patiently waited while people shouted instructions to him, but it finally took an engineer to hand-crank him down.

In ancient days citizens were paid to attend the theatre, it being the main source of education.

I do believe T. P. is improving in Europe. When the famous Olympic athletic contests were held, the participants were attired just as God had originally attired them.

On Delos, an absolutely wild photographer was keeping over the ruins, pitching his camera up in air — snap! Down to his knees — snap! He even SLUNG it over his shoulder and snapped. (His film changing took about thirty seconds flat, one roll being held in his teeth.)

We nearly fountered when we saw the prints — good!

That incomparable Parthenon! The floor supporting the columns was curved slightly upward which creates the illusion that the building stands on a horizontal base. Columns when set vertically seem to fall outward, so the architects inclined them inward.

These optical corrections demanded extreme accuracy in the Greek mason.

No mortar was used between column sections; yet today, a needle cannot be inserted between the column sections; yet today, a needle cannot be inserted between the column drums in the eastern side, (with such precision did the Greeks build.)

On March 25, the day for celebrating Greek liberation from the Turks, King

Constantine, astride his black stallion, turned to salute. With a fierce, swinging gait, an officer in full dress uniform, atop two wooden "stick" legs, led his small battalion, they in their wheel chairs being propelled by nurses in white. Smartly he pivoted and came to a halt on the opposite side of the street, squarely facing the King. For one hour this bloody but unbowed veteran stood at attention on his "tooth-picks" while the parade passed.

Tears could not be pushed back, even less the nagging thought that these are surely the world's most forlorn, forgotten men.

Eight days and many experiences later, we found ourselves high in the hills at Delphi where the famous oracles were proclaimed. A question was finally answered for me, also. A certain husband, after his umpteenth tour, exclaimed, "I don't care if I NEVER see another ruin!" If only he had had a mirror! Dusty, tired, hair and clothes slightly askew from the wind — as worn looking as a Sphinx. My favorite ruin? Why, it is the one who accompanied me, suffering, at times, on all those arduous treks.

At the Temple of Apollo, our last Grecian guide began relating the feats of that mighty and marvelous God when a distinct braying resounded through the mountain pass. Someone said, "The donkey laughs at Apollo," and our guide smiled. At that moment, I knew what Omar the Tent-maker had known centuries before me —

WHY, ALL THE SAINTS AND SAGES WHO DISCUSSED OF THE TWO WORLDS SO WISELY — THEY ARE THRUST LIKE FOOLISH PROPHETS FORTH, THEIR WORDS TO SCORN ARE SCATTERED, AND THEIR MOUTHS ARE STOPPED WITH DUST.

TO MY FRIENDS IN THE GLADES

Palm Beach County's Group 2 seat in the State House of Representatives, has always been held by a Glades resident. We face a major struggle to keep that seat as a Palm Beach financed political group is attempting to take away our representation.

Your response to my candidacy has been heart warming. We must not rest now. Let's all work harder these last few days to insure a successful election and continued fair representation.

Sincerely,

Purse Contents Study Finds 'No Kitchen Sink' Nearly Everything Else

What's in a purse? A recent survey confirms what women already know: A purse may contain just about anything that's small and portable. In its research, Kimberly-Clark classifies the contents of purses as necessities, emergency items, and "miscellaneous."

After looking inside their purses, almost all women interviewed revealed that they carry keys, identification, driver's license, social security card, credit cards, money, check book, address book, lipstick, powder, mirror, comb, purse pack, Kleenex tissues, nail file, shopping lists, reminder lists, photographs of the family, and plastic rain coat.

But to be really prepared for the activities of the day, many women also carry hair spray, brush eye make-up, nail polish, manicure set, tweezers, aspirin, mending kit, eye glasses, pills, safety pins, hair pins, first aid kit, and maps, too.

The miscellaneous category really refers to the purse's function as a catchall, for many women carry children's coat buttons, ticket stubs, grocery coupons, and other assorted collector's items.

While there was some minor disagreement about what a purse should contain, not a woman was found who would trade her purse for nothing.

Nation's Costliest Pest? $500 Million Litterbug

Every taxpayer helps support a habit to break with the help of an $500 million industry that nobody likes to see littered.

That's how much it costs to pick up the litter in public streets, highways and parks. Last year, the cost of cleaning city streets reached $300 million. Another $100 million was spent for picking litter off national highways. The remaining $100 million went for cleaning city parks, beaches and other public places.

This gigantic expenditure of tax dollars can be cut down. The nation's worst litter habit is throwing paper from automobiles onto highways and streets. Yet it's an easy road!

One handy combination unit collects litter on one side and dispenses Kleenex junior size tissues from the other. The dispenser-disposer which fits over the floor tunnel of the car, is available from Autolitter, Box 345-1, Southfield, Mich. for $17.95 and two premium seals for $17.95 and two premium seals for $17.95.

The handy, tip-proof basket, in black, blue, red, green, gold, silver or beige, is made of durable plastic and weighted to keep it in place. Keep litter in its place — not on roads and streets.

Bar Unit Judicial Poll Backs Sinclair. Smith

The Judicial Poll of the Palm of the better than 200,000 voters in the county, according to the results of the poll, which was held on April 22, 1966, at the County Courthouse in Palm Beach. The poll was conducted by the Florida Department of Corrections, which is responsible for the administration of the state's penal system. The results of the poll show that a majority of voters support the candidacy of Don C. Sinclair for the position of State Representative, Group 4, Lever 26-A. The poll also shows that a majority of voters support the candidacy of Smith for the position of State Representative, Group 4, Lever 26-A. The poll was held in accordance with the provisions of the Florida Constitution, which requires that a judicial poll be held in each county to determine the will of the people regarding the removal of judges from office. The results of the poll will be used by the Florida Department of Corrections to determine whether or not to remove any judges from office. The poll was held in a fair and impartial manner, and the results are believed to accurately reflect the will of the people. The Florida Department of Corrections is committed to the principle of judicial independence, and it is its policy to remove judges from office only when the people have clearly expressed their desire to do so. The results of the poll show that the people of Palm Beach County have expressed their confidence in the judiciary, and the Florida Department of Corrections will continue to uphold the principle of judicial independence.

Sinclair Rated High In Survey

Only 20 of the 100 members of the Judicial Poll who were asked to rate the candidates for the position of State Representative, Group 4, Lever 26-A, rated Don C. Sinclair as the highest rated candidate. The poll was conducted by the Florida Department of Corrections, which is responsible for the administration of the state's penal system. The results of the poll show that a majority of voters support the candidacy of Don C. Sinclair for the position of State Representative, Group 4, Lever 26-A. The poll also shows that a majority of voters support the candidacy of Smith for the position of State Representative, Group 4, Lever 26-A. ### Sophomore Spelling Bee

The Palm Beach County Sophomore Spelling Bee was held on Saturday, April 16, at Lake Worth Junior College. This was the 18th Annual County-Wide session. Each school was represented by two representatives, one boy and one girl from the sophomore class. The county finals consisted of both oral and written tests following the pattern of the last five years. The first prize, a beautiful trophy donated by the Exchange Club of West Palm Beach, was awarded to Lake Worth High and second prize was shared by Carver of Delray and another school in the county.

Special recognition is given to Ethel Lockett and Alton Jones for doing a splendid job of representing the sophomores of Lake Worth High. Both contestants received merit awards.

Can You Imagine . . .

All students at Lake Shore High scoring 100 on all exams?
Everyone wearing bikinis to the Jr.-Sr. Prom?
Edward Gibbons not copying on any exam?
Everyone being present on the last day of school?
Charles Haynes staying in school all day?
Barbara Finney not having a crush on a different boy every second?
Atom-Jones being president of the Student Council?
Jerome Wilford not having to rush home after band rehearsal and cook supper?
Seventh graders acting like seniors?
Fattie Bullock being a speech therapist?
"Tony" Manley not being a problem?
Maggie Fuller and Daisy McCoy not gossiping?
Mrs. Russell's second hour class being quiet?
Lula Carrigan walking like Chester Ellison?
Ruthie Mae Jones being Miss Lake Shore High?
Carolyn Coleman being a psychiatrist?
Gwendolyn Lowe being a cheerleader?
Wouldn't this school be in orbit?

Tigers Nip Bobcats

The Lake Shore Bobcats Baseball Team lost to the Gifford Tigers of Vero Gifford, Florida on April 18, by a score of 8-4.

During the top of the third inning Lake Shore tied with Gifford by a score of 3-3. The Tigers and Bobcats came back strong in the fifth inning score 2 pts. tying the score 6-6. In the last inning of the game Gifford scored the last scores, ending the game by a score of 8-6.

"The Tatler's Column"

Well, here I am again with some exciting news that will turn everyone's ears.

Gwendolyn L. I understand that you're trying to make it with Charles B. I hope you succeed.

Gwendolyn J. have you and Johnny E. decided to go out again?

Deborah J. Is it true that you've finally fallen in love?

Mary H. What happened to you and Jacob F.? Did he wander off to far too town around?

Mary A. L. who will be the lucky young man be since you and Daniel P. broke up?

Paul S. I understand that you're trying to put out with a certain underclassman.

You know Geneva B. isn't going for that.

Manford S. Is it possible that you're trying to make out with Elvora P.? I wish you all the luck in the world.

Steve L. Will you ever stop clowning and be serious for once in your life?

Marsha S. Is it true that you've a crush on a certain senior?

Vivian B. What are you waiting around for? Is it because the right fellow hasn't come along yet?

Brenda Mc. Is it true that you can't fall in love?

Ella M. J. Why are you and your friends always arguing? Could it be that you want the fellows to notice you?

You Well the next time, keep your business to yourself; because someone might kick it in the newspaper. Ha! Ha! Ha!

Student Of The Week

Catherine Lowe has been selected as student of the week. The 5 feet 5 inch brown eyed, brown haired sophomore was born in Belle Glade, Florida on January 5, 1951. Catherine received her favorite past times are: Reading, cooking, sewing, and music. Her favorite subject is mathematics. Pink is her favorite color. Catherine is a member of the Debating, Mathematics, and Girl Scout organizations. She plans to attend Howard University upon graduating from high school to study engineering.

Art Work Displayed

Have you been keeping an eye on our display board at the front entrance of the school? Recently the board has featured the work of individual school artists. Some of our artists have really surprised us. We didn't know they possessed all of this wonderful talent. The artists in the Fashion Design class have done exceptional good work.

The rug display this week drew quite a lot of attention along with many o-o-o and a-h-h-hs. Mr. Garrett is happy over his students' achievements.

Look for a display soon of the work by students in the Poster Design and Display class.

The Safety Patrol

The members of the safety patrol of Lake Shore High are chartering a bus to take all interested persons to the Miami Seagrass on May 7, for a fee of $2.00 per person. If persons who are interested in making the trip should contact the members of the patrol before May 4, 1966.

Future Teachers Attend Banquet

The members of the Future Teachers of America Organization attended the annual county banquet at the Forest Hill High School cafeteria in West Palm Beach, Florida April 19, 1966.

The speaker for this occasion was Dr. Simmons of Florida Atlantic University. His speech about characteristics of a good teacher, how schools have changed in recent years, and on the development of colleges in Florida, was very inspiring and enjoyed by all.

The schools that were represented at this banquet were: Seacrest High School, John I. Leonard, Lake Shore High School, Belle Glade High, Jupiter High, Forest Hill High, and Palm Beach High.

After the banquet, new officers were chosen for the coming year from Lake Shore High School. Hearlene Williams was chosen as Treasurer.

After the banquet was over, an acquaintance hour was held.

Photography Club News

Members of the photography club, which has one of the largest school club enrollments, are being let in on the secrets of developing and printing films. Although the club still is in need of basic equipment and supplies, the sponsors Mr. Leroy Williams, Mr. Floyd Phillips and Mr. Johnny Williams are furnishing members with basic information for processing films. Members are looking forward to the day when they can start their cameras to "click" around the campus.

Maybe some of them will become top notch photographers — you never can tell!

Book Of The Week

Many stirring episodes are presented in this book concerning Bucky and Cam. Cam escapes in the north woods, for instance, there is a serious moment with a ferocious viney, Cam's brother, Vince's encounter with Mr. Eves and the panther's struggle with the Keg and of course the various attempts to establish a refuge to ensure the survival of wild geese.

The author does a wonderful job of presenting a very realistic and picturesquely picture of life in the northwoods. This book should appeal especially to persons interested in hunting, trapping and the outdoors. It is highly recommended.

A Freshman Grips

All freshmen would like, I am sure, to say come all come all to the annual Freshman Ball. But is there going to be a Freshman Ball? Have the freshmen ever had an annual formal affair?

Someone said not too long ago that the ninth graders are a part of Lake Shore High and should be recognized. We freshmen are striving to be recognized. We are represented in most of the organizations and clubs. We are good school citizens and a considerable number of honor students are in our class.

We realize that a formal affair for the Freshman would entail finance. We support other organizations and clubs. He can support a Freshman ball.

Will some one please tell us why the junior class is not looking forward to a Freshman Ball just as the upperclassmen look forward to the prom?

A freshman spokesman

Snooping Around With The Sophomores

Hello! Here I am with more exciting news about the latest happenings of the Lake Shore Sophomores.

Curtis P. I hear that M. H. is really in love with you, but while she's in love with you, aren't you trying to make a comeback with M. Mc? Make up your mind, friend.

Margaret H. I hear you've found a new love, what's R. F. going to do when he gets back?

Edna G. what are you going to do now? Have you found a new love yet?

Beatrice H. I hear you've got someone that's surely the one and only. You'd better make sure that he stays in line and keep up the good work.

Gloria D. you've let one T. go but you've joined another T. How many T's are there in your life?

Herman H. where were you and H. M. seen going last Saturday at due time. Were you going home toward 8th street? I thought you stayed in the opposite direction.

Johnny L. your projects for becoming a doctor are good. Don't let . . . interfere.

Lemar B. have you found the one and only? You can't remain single forever or can you?

Frank G. you and your number one, whoever she is, really make life "Go, Go, Go."

Betty B. do you have a true lover or is he just a stand by? You once were tight with C. E. what happened? You and L. W. would have made a wonderful couple. Ha! Ha!

Barbara B. I see that you're getting around very much lately but I hardly ever see you with . . . what happened? Did you slip away?

Johnny A. are you single or can't you find someone? I don't mean "From."

Mary N. isn't S. Y. your number one anymore or did you let the little Freshman move in on you. Who is going to win your little gold piece? Will it be A. S. I hope so, even though you won't see him regularly.

Nathaniel J. where were you going at 10:30 last Saturday night? I know you weren't going to . . . house at this hour.

Bennet D. has cupid struck your heart yet or will he ever? Your heart could mean so much to some one you would release it to a cute little doll like . . .

Maggie S. I hear you and C. J. really really called and quits now. Is this so? Or did you still hold on to your old argument? I hardly ever see you two together so that I can report on your doings.

Sally C. Why don't you and Bruce B. ever attend some place together. I've looked and looked for you but I just can't seem to find anything to say about you two.

Ethel L. Do you have an everlasting love with R. J.?

I hear it's the kind of love that can't be replaced, so hold on to what you've got.

Incidentally, the next time you listen to your favorite radio station listen to these favorites of the sophomores:

"Deej" Diatry,

Friend, "634-5789," and of course "Nightmare."

Until next Thursday be on the alert and conduct yourselves in an orderly fashion!

The Snooper

These two individuals were given recognition for their outstanding performance.

Winstall Coleman 19 pts.

Johnny Lusane 18 pts.

Maggie's Column

Dear Maggie,

There's a girl in my class who laughs at anything any one says. At times this can be quite disturbing. When we ask her why she laughs all the time, she says that she can't help it. Please tell us what to do.

Annoyed

Dear Annoyed,

It seems as though this young lady has a complex. Neither you nor I can do anything about this but I have done or said in the past, so you must get out on a date with him until at least another month from now. What do you think?

Confused

Dear Confused,

I feel the way your parents seem to feel. Allow yourself more time to become better acquainted with this young man. Then go out with him. No matter how things turn out in the end, whether you decide to or not, you'll be glad you gave yourself plenty of time to know him better.

Maggie

Dear Maggie,

I am very fond of a young man and I think he is fond of me also. My parents are against it, so I go out on a date with him until at least another month from now. What do you think?

Annoyed

Dear Annoyed,

It seems as though this young lady has a complex. Neither you nor I can do anything about this but I have done or said in the past, so you must get out on a date with him until at least another month from now. What do you think?

Confused

Dear Confused,

I feel the way your parents seem to feel. Allow yourself more time to become better acquainted with this young man. Then go out with him. No matter how things turn out in the end, whether you decide to or not, you'll be glad you gave yourself plenty of time to know him better.

For And About Teenagers

THE WEEK'S LETTER: "I have known this girl for a long time and we get along very well. I think she loves me but I'm afraid to admit it because of her mother. Her mother doesn't want me to go with her daughter and I don't like me. Could you tell me how I can get her mother to trust me with her daughter? I would like to ask her hand in marriage."

CONFIDENTIAL: If you establish the reason that she does not trust you, if there is something you have done or said in the past, then you must set things right. You must be a good person, not object to you as an individual. She may not want her daughter going steady with anyone and she may be definitely opposed to this young man. If her daughter is in her teens, this is probably the case.

OUR REPLY: If you get along with this girl well, she should be able to express her true feelings. If she dates you against her mother's wishes, it would seem that she would not be afraid to express herself.

You cannot win her mother's
